To The Memory Of Our Ancestors

Preface

The purpose of this mimeographed book is to make available this Genealogical material to the individuals whose families are related.

This book has been collected and placed here by several members of the family.

Because of the limited area and excessive time and cost of collecting this material with a small outlet or limited demand, it would not be considered by a commercial publisher.

The sources of materials employed are listed, as may be noted.

Note:
We start with 1-1 Wm. because he is the first one that we know.

2-1 John is son of (1-1)
3-1 Children of (2-1) etc.

All persons who have contributed information, we hereby wish to make known our gratitude.

This book as been made possible by the generous help of many too numerous to mention.

Church History of WILLIAM BUCKINGHAM Family

In 1687 Welsh and Irish Baptists crossed the Atlantic and settled in lower Dublin, Pa., called Pennypack. This church was the seat from which influence and men went forth who organized the earliest churches in New Jersey and Penn.

William Buckingham from England was a QUAKER turned BAPTIST. His first known connection was with the Cohansey Baptist Church in New Jersey, where there was no regular church but the members met in homes.

In 1697 there was a division in the Society of Friends known as the Keithian Friends, followers of George Keith. "Among other Quakers baptised were John Beckingham and to them joined Wm. Beckingham, who broke away from the church at Cohansey.-----In 1700 difference arose among them touching the Sabbath which broke up the Society. Such as adhered to the Seventh Day (Seventh Day Baptists) kept together at Newtown. The rest lay scattered in the neighborhood until Mr. Abel Morgan gathered 15 of them and formed them into a Society called the Church of the Brandywine."("Benedict Hist. of Baptist" v 2 p 428-29) The Keithian Quakers ended into a kind of transformation of Keithian Baptists of Quaker Baptists. They distinguished days and months by numerical names; held to plainness of language, dress, not swearing or fighting. John and Hannah Beckingham were baptised in the Brandywine Church in 1715 as charter members.

Sixteen Baptists in Wales, about to emigrate to America, formed themselves into a Baptist Church in 1701 with Rev. Thomas Griffith, one of their number, as pastor. They came to Pennepek, now in Philadelphia, Pa., where there was a Welsh Baptist Church. Leaving in this place some of their number and receiving accessions in return, they removed in 1703 to Iron Hill, in the Welsh Tract, New Castle Co., Del., at that time a part of Penn.-----Holding to the laying on hands on baptised believers, they refused to commune for a while with Philadelphia and Pennepak Churches, but the difficulty was settled in 1706 on the side of peace and unity. ("Cathcart Bap. Ency" v 2 p 1230)"The Welsh Tract Baptist Church was the principal, if not the sole means of introducing singing, imposition of hands, church covenants, etc. among Baptists" (Benedict v 2 p 6) John' son William and wife Jane JOINED this church by letter in 1751 but in 1770 had been baptised and received communion from the LONDON TRACT Baptist Church, a branch of the Welsh Tract in London Britain, Pa. In 1790 this became an independent congregation with Wm., Jane and dau., Ruth Cloud, still belonging. By now son John was in Pigeon Creek Baptist Church in Washington Co., Pa, where by 1784 son William was a member. ("Hist. of Chester Co.," Futhey & Cope p 271.
